TWENTY-SEVEN MEN WENT DOWN

Loss of Coast Guard Cutter Leyte During Philippine Storm.

EXTENSIVE DAMAGE DONE

FIRST REPORT NOT IN THE LEAST EXAGGERATED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—In a cablegram given out at the war department today the governor general of the Philippines gives the latest reports on the disastrous storm that swept those islands Sept. 2. The dispatch says that twenty-seven men perished on the coast guard cutter Leyte and that the reports of damage wrought by the storm are generally discouraging. The governor general reports have only been coming in for the last day or two. These reports, he says, are very discouraging. The storm originated east of Samar and swept over the northeast and north end of that island and all the southern provinces of Luzon and Manila.

Crops are all practically destroyed, including coconut, hemp and rice. It is feared that damage equally great has been done in the provinces of Albay, Caramo, and Tausog.

The coast guard cutter Leyte was wrecked off Samar. It was the only ship of the Philippine navy to be lost. The only survivors were the crew, which consisted of twenty-seven men. The ship was carrying a cargo of coconuts, sugar, and other goods. The ship was carrying a cargo of coconuts, sugar, and other goods. The ship was carrying a cargo of coconuts, sugar, and other goods.

CAPTAIN HALL WAS PUMMELED

Indian Agent Had a Mix-up With H. G. Clarke at Myton.

ALLEGED OFFER OF BRIBE

NEW SCANDAL ON THE UINIAH RESERVATION.

(Special to The Herald.)
RICE, Utah, Oct. 2.—Trouble broke out at Myton Saturday afternoon, when a difficulty arose between Captain C. H. Hall, Indian agent for the Uintah and White River Utes at White Rocks, and H. G. Clarke, former chief of Indian police, and they came together with blows. Telephone reports to private parties here state that Hall got decidedly the worst of the fight and that he will not be seen by his friends for several days, after his arrival at the agency, from which he has been absent for several weeks in the land of the Yakimas in Washington, where he went some time ago to study the methods of leasing Indian lands with special reference to applying like methods on the reservation of the Uintah.

Alleged Bribery.
Clarke, who is a nephew of Colonel Randall, former agent for the Uintahs, but now agent for the Osages at some point in Indian Territory, alleges that while acting as chief of Indian police, he was offered a bribe of $500 by President Landley of Chicago for the Raven Mining company, for certain advantages which the company wished to gain over "the common herd" before the reservation was to be thrown open to settlement. Clarke not only refused the bribe, but made an affidavit exposing the matter, together with some other alleged crooked work of the Raven Mining company. This he is alleged to have turned over to Captain Hall, the Indian agent, with the request that the charges be forwarded to the department at Washington.

Affidavits Pigeon-Holed.
It is reported that the affidavits given to Captain Hall and intended for Washington never reached the capital. Captain Hall, according to Clarke's story, received a present of a thousand-dollar automobile and Clarke was immediately relieved of his position as chief of the Indian police.

Yesterday Captain Hall arrived at Myton, returning from his recent trip to Washington. He was met by a crowd of about twenty men, who were waiting for him. The crowd was composed of men of various ages and occupations. Some of them were men of the reservation, while others were men from the surrounding country. The crowd was waiting for him because they were expecting to see him. They were expecting to see him because they were expecting to see him.

YOUNG WIFE SEES HUSBAND SLAIN

Albert Keetheler Shoots Down Frank Duvall, His Son-in-Law.

MADMAN'S DEED. IT IS SAID

REVOLVER IN HAND, SLAYER WALKS UP STREET.

BEFORE the eyes of the mother and child whom he was taking to save from his slayer's fury, Frank Duvall was shot down by his father-in-law, Albert Keetheler, about 8 o'clock last evening. With a bullet in his brain, Duvall ran out of the house at 222 South State street, where the tragedy took place, and fifty feet through the yard; then sank to the ground—dead. As the dying man lurched from the room his young wife, weeping his death, called him by name. When she learned the truth a few moments later she swooned. Keetheler, his revolver in his hand, went a block north on State street. At the corner of Second and South street Patrolmen Charles Burton and William Hilton overtook him and arrested him.

Frank Duvall, victim of his father-in-law's bullets, was a dishwasher in the Hotel Wilson. Keetheler is 46 years of age, and has been working in Betts & Holt's livery stable some time past. Duvall had been married for only six months to Keetheler's stepdaughter, Una Preston. Both families lived in the adobe house set well back from the street, the rear of the Miller hotel, where Duvall met his death.

Duvall and his young wife occupied the front part of the house. He worked hard and so did she, to maintain themselves. In the rear part of the house Keetheler, his wife and the latter's little daughter, Violet Preston, lived.

Story of the Women.
What follows is the story told by Mrs. Keetheler, Mrs. Duvall and little Violet Preston.

Mrs. Keetheler said: "Frank Duvall was killed trying to protect me. He gave his life for me. Keetheler is crazy at times. He has been subject to such spells for a long time past. I complained of him to the police twice. He has carried a revolver for six months past and has threatened me and others in the household."

"Tonight he came home in one of his tempers. He was going to throw Violet out of the house. She has just recovered from typhoid fever, and is still weak. I intervened and said, 'You'll not throw her out. And then he pitched on me. He struck me and I separated."

"Frank Duvall came into the bedroom where we were at the time and attempted to defend me. He and Keetheler struggled, and then I heard the shots fired. Frank ran from the house by the rear door. Keetheler ran out by the front door."

Violet Duvall said: "My stepfather has been awfully ugly and we were all afraid of him. He carried a revolver and he thought he was crazy sometimes. He came some time ago, sitting down on one side of the table in the kitchen. He was at the other side nearest the door. He told me to go to bed, and I separated."
